

Steve Blailock

Steve Blailock is an acclaimed guitarist carrying on the legacy of jazz and blues from New Orleans and his native Mississippi.

Honors:

- Mississippi Music Hall of Fame: Inducted in 1998
- All Star Guitar and Banjo Player, New Orleans Magazine, 1997

Steve has appeared at numerous American and international jazz festivals, including:

- New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival (US)
- New Orleans Jazz Festival Ascona (Switzerland)
- Beijing Jazz Festival
- Meridian Museum of Arts Blues and BBQ Festival

Steve has performed with thousands of accomplished jazz, blues, and country artists, including:

- Dr. Michael White at the Village Vanguard, NYC
- Willie Mae "Big Mama" Thornton
- Betty Carter
- Lou Rawls
- Harry Connick, Jr.
- Wynton Marsalis

Steve has appeared on over 900 CDs. Some examples:

Steve Blailock: Mixed Bag, 1996
Preservation Hall Jazz Band: Shake That Thing, 2004
Heritage Hall Jazz Band with Jewel Brown: Live at the American Theatre
The Great Mississippi Jazz Guitarists Reunion
Big Al Carson: Take Your Drunken Ass Home, 2002
Fessor's Funky New Orleanians: Decatur Street Stomp, 1999 (Denmark)
Davell Crawford: Born with the Funk, 1999
Leroy Jones: City of Sounds, 1999
Jack Maheu: Jack Maheu in New Orleans, 1998
Benny Waters: Birdland Birthday - Live at 95, 1997
Dukes of Dixieland: Sound of Bix: A Salute to Bix Beiderbecke, 1996
Kevin Clark: New Orleans Trumpet, 1996
Bucky Barrett: Killin' the Wind, 1979

Contact:

www.steveblailock.com
jazzoo@sbcglobal.net
Home: 713-436-1863
Mobile: 601-590-5752

